Uprisings till 1857 and the Revolt of 1857

Tribal, peasant and civil revolts · causes, course and results of 1857 · what changed in 1858

Read this once, slowly, before you start today's 50 questions. About 22 questions are on the earlier revolts and peasant movements, and about 28 are on 1857 and what followed. Green boxes are in Tamil for the harder ideas.

IF YOU ONLY REMEMBER 12 THINGS

1. Almost every tribal and peasant revolt was against outsiders (dikus) who took land: moneylenders, traders, revenue officials, zamindars.
2. Santhal Hul 1855–56: Sido and Kanhu, Rajmahal hills. Result: Santhal Parganas district.
3. Munda Ulgulan 1899–1900: Birsa Munda, Chotanagpur. He died of cholera in Ranchi jail (not hanged). Result: Chotanagpur Tenancy Act 1908.
4. Kol 1831–32 (Buddho Bhagat), Khasi 1829 (Tirot Singh, road to Sylhet), Paika 1817 (Jagabandhu, Odisha).
5. Pabna 1873 was against zamindars, not the British. Deccan 1875 was against moneylenders (no zamindars there). Indigo 1859–60 began in Nadia.
6. Titu Mir (Barasat, bamboo fort), Faraizi (Shariatullah, Dudu Miyan), Wahabi (Syed Ahmad, Balakot 1831), Kuka (Ram Singh).
7. 1857: immediate cause = Enfield rifle cartridge (1856). Mangal Pandey, 34th BNI, Barrackpore, 29 March. Meerut 10 May, Delhi 11 May.
8. Awadh was annexed in 1856 for misrule, not by Lapse. Many Bengal Army sepoys came from Awadh.
9. Leaders: Nana Sahib (Kanpur), Hazrat Mahal (Lucknow), Kunwar Singh (Jagdishpur), Khan Bahadur Khan (Bareilly), Lakshmibai (Jhansi), Bakht Khan (Delhi).
10. Captured Bahadur Shah: Hodson; exiled to Rangoon, died 1862. Tantia Tope: betrayed by Man Singh of Narwar, hanged April 1859.
11. Failure: no common plan; Sikhs, Gurkhas, Madras Army, Nizam, Scindia stayed with the British.
12. After: GoI Act 1858, Queen's Proclamation (1 Nov 1858), army reorganised, Councils Act 1861. No elected legislatures promised.

1. The big picture before 1857

Between 1763 and 1857 there were hundreds of small revolts. They fall into three families. Learn the family first, then the names.

Family	Who rose	Against whom	Examples
Civil rebellions	Dispossessed rajas, poligars, zamindars, soldiers, displaced peasants	The Company's rule: loss of power, land and service	Sanyasi, Chuar, Poligar, Paika, Kittur, Vellore
Tribal uprisings	Adivasis (Kol, Santhal, Munda, Khasi)	Outsiders and the land, forest and revenue laws that favoured them	Kol, Santhal Hul, Munda Ulgulan
Peasant movements	Cultivators	Zamindars, moneylenders, indigo planters	Indigo, Pabna, Deccan, Mappila

FEATURES COMMON TO THESE REVOLTS (UPSC ASKS THIS)

- Resentment against outsiders who took tribal or peasant land.
- Local, not all-India. No common plan, no modern ideas, old weapons (bows, swords, clubs).
- Led by local chiefs, village headmen or religious figures, not the Western-educated middle class.
- Religion was often the language of protest, but the cause was usually land, rent or debt.
- Suppressed with force, but they often forced a legal remedy (a new district, a tenancy act).

தமிழில் எளிதாக: 1857-க்கு முன் ஏன் இத்தனை கிளர்ச்சிகள்?

எல்லா கிளர்ச்சிகளுக்கும் அடிப்படை ஒன்றுதான்: நிலம், வரி, கடன். கம்பெனி நிலவரியை உயர்த்தியது. நிலத்தை விற்கக்கூடிய, அடகு வைக்கக்கூடிய பொருளாக மாற்றியது. இதனால் ஜமீன்தார், வட்டிக்காரர், வியாபாரி போன்ற வெளியாட்கள் (diku) கிராமங்களுக்குள் வந்தனர்.

- பழங்குடியினர் (சாந்தால், முண்டா, கோல்) தங்கள் நிலத்தை பறித்த வெளியாட்களை எதிர்த்தனர்.
- விவசாயிகள் (பாப்னா, தக்காணம், அவுரி) ஜமீன்தார், வட்டிக்காரர், தோட்ட முதலாளிகளை எதிர்த்தனர்.
- பழைய ஆட்சியாளர்கள் (கிட்டூர், பைக்கா, பாளையக்காரர்) தங்கள் அதிகாரம், நிலம் இழந்ததால் போரிட்டனர்.

இவை ஒவ்வொன்றும் ஒரு பகுதியில் மட்டுமே நடந்தன; எல்லா பகுதிகளையும் இணைக்கும் திட்டம் இல்லை. அதனால்தான் அடக்கப்பட்டன.

2. Civil rebellions and early revolts

Revolt	Where	Leader	Remember
Sanyasi and Fakir 1763–1800	Bengal, Bihar	Majnu Shah, Chirag Ali, Bhawani Pathak	Wandering ascetics hit by restrictions on pilgrimage, the 1770 famine and revenue demand. Anandamath (Bankim Chandra, 1882) is set against this.

Revolt	Where	Leader	Remember
Chuar 1766–72, 1795–1800	Midnapore, Bankura	Durjan Singh; Rani Shiromani	Hungry peasants and displaced soldiers (paiks) over revenue and loss of land.
Poligar wars 1799–1805	Tamil country	Veerapandya Kattabomman; Marudu brothers; Dheeran Chinnamalai	Kattabomman of Panchalankurichi refused tribute, was hanged at Kayattar on 16 Oct 1799.
Pazhassi Raja 1793–1805	Kottayam, Wayanad (Malabar)	Pazhassi Raja	Guerrilla war against revenue demand; killed in 1805.
Velu Thampi 1808–09	Travancore	Velu Thampi (Dewan of Travancore, not Mysore)	Revolted against the Resident and the burden of the Subsidiary Alliance.
Vellore Mutiny 10 July 1806	Vellore (Madras Army)	Sepoys	New turban and dress rules, ban on caste marks; Tipu's family was held there.
Paika (Khurda) 1817	Odisha	Bakshi Jagabandhu	Company took Odisha in 1803. Paikas lost their rent-free service lands; salt price rose; cowries replaced by silver coin.
Kittur 1824	Belgaum, Karnataka	Rani Chennamma (later Rayanna)	Company refused her adopted heir. Collector Thackeray was killed. Earlier than Dalhousie's Lapse.
Ramosi 1822, 1825–26	Satara, Maharashtra	Chittur Singh; Umaji Naik	High revenue and famine.
Gadkari, Sawantwadi 1844	Kolhapur, Sawantwadi	Phond Sawant	Hereditary garrison servants dismissed; revenue collection.

Revolt	Where	Leader	Remember
Rampa 1879; 1922–24	Godavari hills (Andhra)	Alluri Sitarama Raju (1922)	Forest laws and begar. The 1922 rebellion is the better known.

TRAPS

- Velu Thampi was Dewan of Travancore.
- Kittur (1824) came before Dalhousie's Doctrine of Lapse, but for the same reason.
- Kattabomman = hanged 1799; Pazhassi = guerrilla till 1805.

3. Tribal uprisings

Uprising	Where	Leader	Cause and result
Khasi 1829–33	Meghalaya hills	Tirot Singh	British plan for a military road from Brahmaputra valley to Sylhet through Khasi hills. Garos joined.
Ahom 1828	Assam	Gomdhar Konwar	British did not leave Assam after the First Burmese War (Yandabo, 1826).
Singhpho 1830	Assam	Nirang Phidu	Resisted British control of the frontier.
Kol 1831–32	Chotanagpur, Singhbhum	Buddho Bhagat, Joa Bhagat	Land passed to outside farmers and moneylenders; high revenue. Troops came from Calcutta and Benares to crush it.
Bhumij 1832–33	Manbhum	Ganga Narayan Singh	Land revenue and loss of tribal headmen's rights.
Khond 1840s–55	Odisha	Chakra Bisoi	Opposition to the ban on human sacrifice (meriah), new taxes and moneylenders.

Uprising	Where	Leader	Cause and result
Santhal Hul 1855–56	Rajmahal hills (Damin-i-Koh), Bengal, Bihar	Sido and Kanhu (with Chand and Bhairav)	Moneylenders, zamindars and officials who protected them; interest rates as high as 500%. About 10,000 gathered in June 1855. Crushed, but the British created the Santhal Parganas and barred transfer of Santhal land to non-Santhals.
Munda Ulgulan 1899–1900	Chotanagpur plateau	Birsa Munda	Collapse of the khuntkatti (joint tribal ownership) system under zamindars and moneylenders. Birsa declared a new faith and an end to dikus' rule. Captured 1900, died in Ranchi jail of cholera. Result: Chotanagpur Tenancy Act 1908.

ORDER TO REMEMBER

Khasi (1829) → Kol (1831) → Bhumij (1832) → Santhal (1855) → Indigo (1859) → Munda (1899). Test question: Kol, Santhal, Indigo, Munda is the right order.

TRAPS UPSC LOVES

- Sido–Kanhu = Santhal. Birsa = Munda. Do not swap them.
- Santhal = Rajmahal hills. Munda and Kol = Chotanagpur. Santhal Parganas is where the Santhal Hul is remembered, not the Munda centre.
- Birsa was not hanged.
- Tribal leaders were not educated or middle class, and no one asked for a constitution.

தமிழில் எளிதாக: சாந்தால், முண்டா, கோல் — குழப்பம் வேண்டாம்

- கோல் (1831–32): சோட்டாநாக்பூர்; தலைவர் புத்தோ பகத். நிலம் வெளியாட்களிடம் போனது.
- சாந்தால் ஹூல் (1855–56): ராஜ்மஹால் குன்றுகள்; தலைவர்கள் சித்து–கான்ஹு. வட்டிக்காரர்களை எதிர்த்தனர். விளைவு: சாந்தால் பர்கானா மாவட்டம் உருவானது; சாந்தால் நிலத்தை வெளியாட்களுக்கு மாற்ற தடை.
- முண்டா உல்குலான் (1899–1900): சோட்டாநாக்பூர்; தலைவர் பிர்சா முண்டா. 1900-ல் ராஞ்சி சிறையில் காலராவால் இறந்தார் (தூக்கிலிடப்படவில்லை). விளைவு: சோட்டாநாக்பூர் குத்தகைச் சட்டம் 1908.

நினைவில் வைக்க: Santal → Sido; Munda → Birsa (முண்டா = ஒரே தலைவர் பிர்சா).

4. Peasant and religious-agrarian movements

Bengal and the east

Movement	Leader	Cause and notes
Titu Mir 1830–31	Mir Nithar Ali (Titu Mir), follower of Syed Ahmad Barelvi	Poor Muslim peasants of 24 Parganas (Barasat) against Hindu zamindars who taxed beards, and indigo planters. Bamboo fort at Narkelbaria. Killed 1831 by British troops. Often called the first armed peasant revolt.
Faraizi from 1818	Haji Shariatullah (Faridpur); son Dudu Miyan	Stressed the faraiz (obligatory duties of Islam). Dudu Miyan gave it an agrarian edge against zamindars' illegal cesses. Titu Mir did not start it.
Pagal Panthi 1825–35	Karam Shah, then son Tipu	Mymensingh (Garo and Hajong peasants) against zamindar oppression.

Movement	Leader	Cause and notes
Wahabi 1820s–1870s	Syed Ahmad of Rae Bareli; centre at Patna	Inspired by Shah Waliullah. Wanted to purify Islam and revive Dar-ul-Islam. Syed Ahmad was killed at Balakot, 1831 fighting the Sikhs. Faridpur belongs to the Faraizis, not Wahabis. Put down in the 1860s–70s.

Indigo, Pabna, Deccan

Movement	Where, when	Key facts
Indigo revolt	Nadia, Bengal, 1859–60	Peasants refused to grow indigo under unfair contracts. Leaders Digambar and Bishnucharan Biswas. Supported by Dinabandhu Mitra's play *Neel Darpan and Harish Chandra Mukherjee's *Hindoo Patriot. Indigo Commission (1860) criticised planters; the government declared ryots could not be forced to grow indigo. It did not start in Pabna. Natural indigo later died out because of synthetic dyes.
Pabna Agrarian League	Pabna, East Bengal, 1873	Leader Ishan Chandra Roy. Tenants resisted rent enhancement and illegal cesses by zamindars, using the law (Act X of 1859). They called themselves the Queen's ryots, so it was not anti-British. Led to the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.
Deccan riots	Poona, Ahmednagar, 1875	Ryotwari area, so no zamindars; the target was moneylenders (sahukars), whose bonds were burnt. Cotton prices crashed after the American Civil War; revenue had been raised in 1867. Result: Deccan Agriculturists Relief Act, 1879.

North and south

Movement	Leader	Key facts
Kuka (Namdhari)	Baba Ram Singh, Bhaini (Punjab)	Turned a Sikh sect into a political movement. Boycott of British goods, courts, schools and post. 1872 clash at Malerkotla; about 65 Kukas blown from guns. Ram Singh exiled to Rangoon.
Mappila outbreaks	Local leaders, Malabar	1836–54 and 1921. Cause is agrarian: Mappila tenants with insecure tenure and high rent under Hindu jenmi landlords backed by British courts. Religion gave the language of protest. Wagon Tragedy, Nov 1921: prisoners suffocated in a train from Tirur to Podanur.

WHO DID THEY HIT? (A QUICK TEST)

Movement	Main target
Titu Mir, Faraizi, Pabna	Zamindars (rents, cesses)
Indigo	European planters
Deccan riots	Moneylenders
Mappila	Jenmi landlords and the courts behind them
Kuka, Wahabi	British rule itself

தமிழில் எளிதாக: விவசாயிகள் யாரை எதிர்த்தனர்?

- பாப்னா (1873) — ஜமீன்தார்கள் வாடகையை உயர்த்தியதை எதிர்த்தனர். ஆனால் "நாங்கள் ராணியின் குடிமக்கள்" என்றனர்; பிரிட்டிஷ் ஆட்சிக்கு எதிரி அல்ல. தலைவர்: ஈசான் சந்திர ராய்.
- தக்காணக் கலகம் (1875) — வட்டிக்காரர்களை எதிர்த்தது. அங்கே ஜமீன்தார்களே இல்லை (ryotwari பகுதி). சட்டம்: Deccan Agriculturists Relief Act 1879.
- அவுரி (1859–60) — நாடியா மாவட்டம்; விவசாயிகளை அவுரி பயிரிட நிர்பந்தித்த ஐரோப்பிய தோட்ட முதலாளிகளை எதிர்த்தது. நாடகம்: நீல் தர்பன்.
- மாப்பிளா — மலபாரில் குத்தகை விவசாயிகள் நில உரிமையாளர்களுக்கு (ஜென்மிகள்) எதிராக. இது மத மோதல் அல்ல; நிலப் பிரச்சினை.

UPSC HAS ASKED

- 2018: After the Santhal uprising, the government created the Santhal Parganas and made it illegal for a Santhal to transfer land to a non-Santhal. Both correct.
- 2020: Ulgulan = Birsa Munda's revolt of 1899–1900.
- 2018: Neel Darpan (1860) was the earliest in a chronology question.
- 2020: Indigo declined because of synthetic dyes, not peasant resistance.

5. The Revolt of 1857: causes

There was no single cause. The soldiers lit the fire, but the fuel had been piling up for a century among princes, taluqdars, peasants, artisans and priests.

Group of causes	What happened
Political	Doctrine of Lapse (Dalhousie): Satara 1848, Jaitpur and Sambalpur 1849, Baghat 1850, Udaipur 1852, Jhansi 1853, Nagpur 1854. Awadh annexed 1856 on the charge of misrule (not by lapse; Wajid Ali Shah had an heir). Nana Sahib's pension refused (Baji Rao II's adopted son). Titles and pensions of the Nawab of Carnatic and Raja of Tanjore ended. Mughal heirs were told to leave the Red Fort.
Economic	Heavy land revenue and rigid collection. Inam Commission (1852, Bombay) resumed many rent-free holdings. In Awadh the summary settlement dispossessed taluqdars. British cloth ruined artisans (drain of wealth, deindustrialisation). Forced cultivation of indigo.
Administrative	Corruption in the police and lower courts; expensive justice; Indians excluded from senior posts.
Social and religious	Abolition of sati, Widow Remarriage Act 1856, Caste Disabilities Removal Act 1850 (a convert to Christianity could still inherit property), missionaries, English education, taxation of temple and mosque lands. People feared forced conversion.
Military	Indian sepoys got low pay and no promotion. Batta (foreign allowance) was withdrawn. General Service Enlistment Act, 1856 required sepoys to serve overseas, which high-caste Hindus believed meant losing caste. Post Office Act, 1854 withdrew free postage. Most of the Bengal Army came from Awadh and Bihar, so the annexation touched them directly.
Immediate cause	Enfield rifle (introduced 1856). Its cartridge had to be bitten open. Rumour said it was greased with cow fat (Hindus) and pig fat (Muslims). The old musket was Brown Bess.

TRAPS

- The Doctrine of Lapse was Dalhousie's, not Canning's. The Enfield cartridge came in 1856, in Canning's term, not Dalhousie's.
- Awadh = misrule. Jhansi, Satara, Nagpur = lapse.
- Do not mix the Revolt (1857) with the 1855–56 Santhal Hul, which was a tribal rising against moneylenders.

தமிழில் எளிதாக: 1857 கிளர்ச்சிக்கு காரணங்கள்

உடனடி காரணம்: புதிய Enfield துப்பாக்கியின் தோட்டாவை வாயால் கடித்துத் திறக்க வேண்டும். அதில் பசு, பன்றி கொழுப்பு தடவப்பட்டதாக வதந்தி பரவியது — இந்துக்களுக்கும் முஸ்லிம்களுக்கும் இது மத அவமதிப்பு.

உண்மையான காரணங்கள்:

- அரசியல்: Doctrine of Lapse மூலம் சதாரா, ஜான்சி, நாக்பூர் இணைப்பு; 1856-ல் அவத் இணைப்பு (தவறான ஆட்சி என்ற காரணம்).
- பொருளாதாரம்: அதிக நிலவரி; இனாம் நிலங்கள் பறிப்பு; அவத் தாலுக்தார்கள் நிலம் இழப்பு.
- சமூக-மதம்: சதி தடை, விதவை மறுமணச் சட்டம், மிஷனரிகள்; மதமாற்ற அச்சம்.
- இராணுவம்: குறைந்த சம்பளம், பதவி உயர்வு இல்லை; General Service Enlistment Act 1856 (கடல் கடந்து சேவை = சாதி இழப்பு என நம்பிக்கை); வங்காளப் படையில் பலர் அவத் பகுதியினர்.

6. The Revolt of 1857: course

- 26 Feb: 19th Bengal Native Infantry refuses the cartridges at Berhampore; disbanded in March.
- 29 Mar: Mangal Pandey (34th BNI) attacks officers at Barrackpore; hanged 8 April.
- 24 Apr – 9 May: Troopers of the 3rd Bengal Light Cavalry at Meerut refuse; 85 are jailed on 9 May.
- 10 May: Sepoys break open the jail, rise at Meerut, and march to Delhi.
- 11 May: They reach Delhi; Bahadur Shah II is proclaimed Emperor of Hindustan. The Mughal name gave the rising legitimacy.
- June: Nana Sahib rises at Kanpur (assisted by Tantia Tope and Azimullah Khan). Henry Lawrence dies in the Lucknow siege (July).
- July: Bakht Khan reaches Delhi from Bareilly and commands the rebels. Havelock retakes Kanpur.
- September: Nicholson storms Delhi; the city falls on 20 Sept. Hodson captures Bahadur Shah at Humayun's Tomb and shoots three of his sons and grandsons.
- Nov 1857: Colin Campbell relieves the Lucknow Residency.
- April 1858: Hugh Rose takes Jhansi. 17 June 1858: Lakshmibai dies in battle near Gwalior.
- 1 Nov 1858: Queen's Proclamation. April 1859: Tantia Tope hanged.

Centres, leaders, and who crushed them

Centre	Rebel leader	British commander	Fate
Delhi	Bahadur Shah II; Bakht Khan (soldier from Bareilly)	Nicholson, Hodson, Archdale Wilson	Emperor tried, exiled to Rangoon; died 1862. Not hanged.

Centre	Rebel leader	British commander	Fate
Kanpur	Nana Sahib (Dhondu Pant, adopted son of Baji Rao II), Tantia Tope	Havelock, Colin Campbell	Nana Sahib escaped to Nepal and was never captured.
Lucknow	Begum Hazrat Mahal for son Birjis Qadr	Henry Lawrence, Havelock, Outram, Colin Campbell	She fled to Nepal.
Jhansi, Gwalior	Rani Lakshmibai, Tantia Tope	Hugh Rose (not Campbell)	Rani died June 1858. Tantia betrayed by Man Singh of Narwar, hanged April 1859.
Jagdishpur, Arrah (Bihar)	Kunwar Singh, in his eighties	Various columns	Died of a wound in April 1858. Not hanged.
Bareilly	Khan Bahadur Khan	Colin Campbell	Captured later and executed.
Faizabad	Maulvi Ahmadullah Shah	—	Killed in 1858 by the Raja of Powayan.
Rewari (Haryana)	Rao Tula Ram	—	Escaped to Afghanistan; died 1863.
Sambalpur (Odisha)	Surendra Sai	—	Arrested later.
Assam	Maniram Dewan	—	Hanged 1858.
Allahabad, Banaras	Liaqat Ali (Allahabad)	Colonel Neill	Suppressed with great brutality.

WHO CRUSHED WHAT

Nicholson–Delhi · Hodson–Humayun's Tomb · Havelock–Kanpur · Campbell–Lucknow relief · Rose–Jhansi. One more: John Lawrence held the Punjab.

7. Why it failed, who stayed loyal, what it was

Reasons for failure	Who stayed with the British
No common plan, programme or single leader. Bahadur Shah was only a symbol.	Sikhs and Gurkhas, and the Madras and Bombay armies
Limited to north and central India; Punjab, Bengal's big zamindars, Rajasthan and the south stayed away.	Nizam of Hyderabad (minister Salar Jung), Scindia of Gwalior (minister Dinkar Rao), Patiala, Jind
British superiority: arms, telegraph, railways, reinforcements from Britain.	Jung Bahadur of Nepal sent Gurkhas
Educated Indians and the new middle class did not support it.	Many princes saw the rebels as a threat to their own rule

Nature of the revolt: what historians said

Historian	View
John Seeley	A mere sepoy mutiny, "wholly unpatriotic and selfish"
V. D. Savarkar	The first war of Indian independence (book, 1909)
R. C. Majumdar	"Neither first, nor national, nor a war of independence"
S. N. Sen	Began as a fight for religion and ended as a war of independence
S. B. Chaudhuri	A civil rebellion: peasants, artisans, zamindars and taluqdars joined in north India
Marxist writers	A peasant uprising and last stand of feudal classes

REMEMBER

It began as a sepoy mutiny but became a civil rebellion in Awadh, Bihar and western UP: moneylenders, courts and revenue records were attacked. So "confined to the army" is wrong. Also, the rebels did not have a coordinated plan, though Bahadur Shah was the nominal head.

தமிழில் எளிதாக: ஏன் தோற்றது? என்ன வகை கிளர்ச்சி?

தோல்விக்கு காரணங்கள்: ஒரே தலைவர், ஒரே திட்டம் இல்லை. வடக்கு, மத்திய இந்தியாவில் மட்டுமே நடந்தது. சீக்கியர், கூர்க்கா, மதராஸ்-பம்பாய் படைகள், நிஜாம், சிந்தியா ஆகியோர் ஆங்கிலேயருக்கு ஆதரவாக இருந்தனர். ஆங்கிலேயரிடம் தந்தி, ரயில், நவீன ஆயுதங்கள் இருந்தன. படித்த இந்தியர்கள் ஆதரிக்கவில்லை.

கிளர்ச்சியின் தன்மை — வரலாற்றாசிரியர் கருத்து: சீலி = "சிப்பாய் கலகம் மட்டுமே". சாவர்க்கர் = "முதல் இந்திய சுதந்திரப் போர்". ஆர்.சி. மஜும்தார் = "முதலும் அல்ல, தேசியமும் அல்ல, சுதந்திரப் போரும் அல்ல". எஸ்.பி. சௌத்ரி = "மக்கள் கிளர்ச்சி (civil rebellion)".

8. After 1857: what changed

Change	Details
Government of India Act, 1858 (2 Aug)	Company rule ended; power to the Crown. Board of Control and Court of Directors abolished. A Secretary of State for India (a Cabinet minister) with a 15-member Council of India; no Indians on it. Governor-General became Viceroy. Canning was the first Viceroy (nicknamed "Clemency Canning").

Change	Details
Queen's Proclamation 1 Nov 1858, Allahabad, read by Canning	Promised: no more annexations, respect for the rights and honour of princes, religious non-interference, impartial admission to services regardless of race or creed (subject to qualification). Not promised: elected legislatures.
Army	Peel Commission (appointed 1858). More European troops (about 1 European to 2 Indians in the Bengal Army; 2 to 5 in Madras and Bombay), artillery kept in European hands. Recruits shifted to Sikhs, Gurkhas and Punjabis (the "martial races") and regiments mixed by caste and region. The Bengal Army's old reliance on Awadh and Bihar high-caste sepoys was reduced.
Princely states	Annexation given up. Princes got adoption sanads, because they had acted as "breakwaters" in the storm.
Indian Councils Act, 1861	Viceroy's Legislative Council to include non-official members, nominated (a few Indians). No elections; limited elections came in 1892.
Social attitude	Racial bitterness; a conservative turn: the British now avoided interfering with Indian religion and social customs.
Land	Awadh taluqdars loyal to Britain had their estates restored.

தமிழில் எளிதாக: 1858-க்குப் பிறகு என்ன மாறியது?

- 1858 இந்திய அரசாங்கச் சட்டம்: கிழக்கிந்திய கம்பெனியின் ஆட்சி முடிந்தது; பிரிட்டிஷ் அரசு நேரடியாக ஆண்டது. இந்தியாவுக்கான அமைச்சர் (Secretary of State), அவருக்கு உதவ 15 உறுப்பினர் குழு. கவர்னர்-ஜெனரல் இனி வைஸ்ராய். முதல் வைஸ்ராய்: கேனிங்.
- அரசியார் அறிவிப்பு (1 நவ 1858): இனி நாடு இணைப்பு இல்லை; மத சுதந்திரம்; இனம், மதம் பாராமல் அரசுப் பணியில் சம வாய்ப்பு. ஆனால் தேர்தல் மூலம் சட்டசபை என்ற வாக்குறுதி இல்லை.
- இராணுவம்: ஐரோப்பியப் படையினர் அதிகரிப்பு; பீரங்கி அவர்கள் கையில்; சீக்கியர், கூர்க்காக்கள் மீது நம்பிக்கை.
- சமஸ்தானங்கள்: தத்தெடுக்க அனுமதி (sanad). அவை இனி பிரிட்டிஷாரின் ஆதரவாளர்கள்.
